Sarah Beach is a registered dental practitioner who is a Coulson Institute trained Orofacial Myologist. Sarah has been incorporating neuromyofascial releases into her OM program for the past few years and now uses many of Tim's techniques for incredibly fast pain relief.

Do you see patients who suffer chronic headaches?

Do you see patients who have TMJ issues?

It IS possible to provide chemical free and immediate pain relief and improved articular function to those patients who always seem to be suffering.

LEARN fast, simple and effective hands-on neuromyofascial techniques and help patients with immediate and effective pain relief.

"...I've stopped TMJ clicking with multiple patients after 5 minutes of applying this technique..."
